Annual Chamber Dinner-Dance Set for Tuesday

Annual dinner dance of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce will take place at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 22, at El Mirador Hotel. The event welcomes the new incoming officers and directors of the board of the Chamber and salutes outgoing members.

Newly elected president for the coming year is Tom Kieley, with Dewey Metzger to serve as first vice president, Warren Slaughter second vice president, and Earl Hough, outgoing president as treasurer.

The following will serve on the Chamber's board of directors for a two-year term: Francis Crocker, Harold West, Stewart Williams, George Olman, Harry Paisley, Frank Bogert, Dr. B. H. Poliak, George Gannon, Adele Colgan, George Beebe, Jr., William Tackett, William Bronstein, Theresa Press and George Ripley.

Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper advised that there will be dancing before and after the speeches and promised that the latter will be very brief.

Hot Oil Issue Hearings Start In Legislature

SACRAMENTO — Oil legislation, which may provide more fireworks than any other issue in the Legislature this year, gets its first hearing today before an Assembly committee.

The Rules Committee of the lower house scheduled a meeting to debate a resolution by Allen Miller (D-San Fernando) which would stop the state Lands Commission from leasing any more tidelands to private oil companies until the Legislature adjourns in June.

Miller described present Lands Commission leasing policies as a "giveaway of precious natural resources."

At the present time, the state leases wildcat tidelands at a flat 12½ per cent royalty to the state plus a cash bonus. Last week the commission leased the first piece of offshore wildcat property to Standard and Humble Oil at the 12½ per cent figure plus a cash bonus of $7.2 million.

Boundaries Decided for New Realty Board

Committees from the Palm Springs and Coachella Valley Realty Boards and a representative group of Cathedral City realtors and brokers met informally at Desert Air hotel yesterday to discuss the jurisdictional location of boundaries prior to the formation of a Cathedral City Realty Board.

The new boundaries agreed upon but subject to the approval of the Palm Springs and Coachella Valley Realty Boards, extends from Tramway to Avenue 33 and to Ramon Road.

At a pre-organizational meeting last week of 24 Cathedral City realtors, brokers and salesmen, it was unanimously decided that

Sam Janis, McDonald Named Desert Circus Co-Chairmen

Sam Janis and Mac McDonald have accepted the co-chairmanship of the 21st Annual Desert Circus, Jimmy Morton, Desert Circus Association president, announced today.

Both men are well known in the Village. Janis, owner of the J & S Paving Company, has been a Villager for over ten years, and McDonald, a member of the Palm Springs Mounted Police, has participated in civic events for many years.

The dates for the 1957 Circus have been set by the co-chairmen as March 27 through 31. Specific events and committees will be announced as plans for the circus progress.

The theme of this year's circus is yet to be determined and chairmen McDonald and Janis have asked for suggestions for a theme, to be mailed to The Desert Sun, Attention: "Desert Circus Theme." All suggestions should be received by this newspaper not later than Tuesday, Jan. 22, in order to be considered.

A general meeting has been called by the chairmen for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 23, at El Mirador Hotel. The theme of the circus as well as a schedule of events will be decided upon at that time. The meeting is open to the public and everyone interested in Desert Circus activities is asked to attend.

Film, The Forger To Be Shown

All Village merchants are invited to attend a showing of the film, "The Forger," at 8 p.m., tonight, Wednesday, at the American Legion hall, under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Retail Merchants Association, President Adrian Rosen announced today.

A question and answer period will follow the film.

The program is being sponsored by the association, in cooperation with the Palm Springs Police Department.

Austria Reaches Refugee Limit

VIENNA — Austria said today it has reached "its very limits" in coping with the problem of Hungarian refugees, and refuses to accept any returnees who have moved to other countries.

Minister of Interior Oscar Helmer told the Council of Ministers Tuesday that the country had spent $7,150,000 for Hungarian refugees during the month of November, and that expenditures for December—still undetermined—were much higher.

He said Austria spent $2 million for refugee accommodations alone.

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Variable high cloudiness but mostly sunny today and Thursday. Possible gusty winds. Slightly warmer today.

Yesterday's high was 72, and low was 42.

29 Palms Land Opened to Vets

WASHINGTON — The Interior Department has classified 720 acres of desert public lands near Twenty-nine Palms for lease and sale as homesites for veterans.

The department disclosed the individual home site tracts were about 2½ acres each, making a total of 288 lots in San Bernardino County 15 miles from Twenty-nine Palms.

Veterans may file applications for the sites with the Bureau of Land Management office at Los Angeles. Applications will be accepted until 10 a.m. March 12 and a drawing to allocate the sites will be held later that month.

The department said applications chosen in the drawing would be given three-year leases with an option to buy at the appraised price of $40 an acre or $100 a tract. No persons can apply for more than one tract.

East Given New Snow Warning

By UNITED PRESS Heavy snow warnings posed a new heat to the frozen Northeast today in the midst of a record-shattering cold wave.

And weathermen foresaw no relief from the death dealing cold wave as a fresh mass of Arctic air swept across the north central state.

A United Press survey showed at least 32 weather-caused fatalities since the cold wave gripped most of the nation east of the Rockies Monday.

Red Cross Group Plans Fund Drive

Board of director, Palm Springs Chapter, American Red Cross, will start plans for its 1957 fund campaign at a meeting at noon, Thursday, at the Biltmore Hotel, according to chairman Shelby Langford.

Adrian Rosen will be chairman of the fund drive.

Square Dance Is Postponed

Square dance class sponsored by the Cathedral City Parent-Teachers Association, regularly scheduled on Wednesday evenings at the school, will not be held tonight due to illness of the instructor, Dave VanNeita.

12 Arrested In County on Dope Charges

Four Taken Into Custody In Palm Springs

Riverside County Sheriff's department last night cracked down on narcotic passers, making twelve arrests and holding three more County Grand Jury indictments for men who have not been apprehended.

Eight of the twelve arrests were made in Riverside and four were in Palm Springs.

LT. DALE THOMPSON and Robert Davis, working with special investigators of the Sheriff's office, cooperated in the four arrests here, and booked Oscar L. Harrison, 32; Harrington B. Gray, 31; and Tadell Alexander, 18, all of Palm Springs, and Ernest Brooks, 19, of Banning. The arrests were all made within a two hour period.

Sheriff's officers have been working on the case for more than three months, preparing the county-wide arrests last night.

The arrests were made just as fast as the passers could be contacted by the "bayer," a deputy sheriff investigator whose identity was not released by Sheriff Joe Rice.

IN THE LOCAL cases, the investigator made his contact, and then would signal the police car which would pull over to the side of the road and make the arrest.

Last Tuesday, according to Sheriff's Lt. Robert Pressley, investigators working on the case went before the County Grand Jury and secured indictments for eight of the suspects. Two suspects were arrested on charges of dangerous drug violations and one on a warrant from the Riverside Municipal Court on "selling" charges.

THESE ARRESTS were made only in Riverside and Palm Springs as investigators were unable to "crack" sellers in other towns in the county where passers are suspected to be operating. Three deputy sheriff officers handled all the preliminary work on the case, and 30 men, including officers of Riverside and Palm Springs police department made the arrests.

Arresting officers said that the "passers" were in possession of marijuana.

Hungarians Set New Revolt Date For January 26

VIENNA — Posters appeared today on walls in revolt-ridden Budapest calling on anti-Soviet citizens to prepare for a new uprising 10 days from now, it was reported here tonight.

Travelers from the Hungarian capital said the posters read in part, "65,000 Hungarians did not die in vain... Do not forget the dead," and urged the people to "stand by for Jan. 26," presumably the date of the new revolt.

Vandals Topple Two Translator Towers

Vandals hacked through two steel television-testing towers of Palm Springs Translator, Inc., yesterday carrying the heavy beams from their hill top site.

Don Starkey, Translator engineer, said he found the damaged towers, apparently cut through with hacksaws, while making an inspection tour yesterday of the tower site on Edom Hill, off the old Highway 99 eight miles from Palm Springs.

Starkey labeled the destruction "a bloody nuisance," but reported that the towers would immediately be replaced with a couple of spares on hand for emergency. "I can't imagine who would do

Blakley Reports 'Vote Democrat'

WASHINGTON — Newly-appointed Sen. William Blakley (D-Tex.) has killed Republican hopes that he might vote with them to give the GOP control of the Senate.

Retiring Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, an ardent supporter of President Eisenhower, appointed Blakley Tuesday to succeed Democrat Price Daniel until a successor is elected in the next four months.

Daniel, who vacated his Senate seat Monday at midnight, succeeded Shivers less than two hours after Blakley's appointment.

Steel Industry Wage Hike Seen

CHICAGO — David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers, has warned the nation's steel industry that a substantial wage demand will be high on the agenda in any future contract negotiations.

such a thing," he remarked. "It's just senseless destruction."

Starkey said that the towers, both deeply imbedded in concrete, were chopped off about a foot from their bases. One tower stood 15 feet high, while the other reached to 20 feet. Both towers were carted off by the culprits.

THE TOWERS were being used to test incoming television pictures from Los Angeles. Damage was estimated at $200.

Only evidence found on the scene by Starkey were clear prints of a jeep. He said sheriff's deputies would be asked to look over the scene today.

Arturo Toscanini, 89, Dies In Sleep at New York Home

NEW YORK — Arturo Toscanini, 89, whose genius as a conductor of operas and symphonies thrilled the world for 60 years, died today in his sleep. He had suffered a stroke New Year's Day.

Death came to the beloved, white-haired maestro at his luxurious Riverside home in the Bronx, apparently as a nurse tried to awaken him at 5:40 a. m. PST. He had been confined to his bed for three days.

"HE JUST SLIPPED away very quietly and very peacefully," his physician, Dr. Waldo Farnum said. "He suffered no pain."

A family spokesman said Toscanini's body would be taken to Milan, Italy, for burial beside that of his wife, Carla, who died in 1951.

Mideast Peace Conditions Set

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Secretary-general Dag Hammarskjöld said today that complete Israeli withdrawal from Egyptian territory, with all sides desisting from raids and scrupulously observing the 1949 armistice agreement, is essential for peace in the Middle East.

Hammarskjöld said in a report to the General Assembly that Israel had notified him its withdrawal from the Sinai Desert, except for a strip commanding the strategic Gulf of Aqaba, would be completed by next Tuesday.

He said Israel's notification, however, said nothing about the disputed Gaza Strip, which juts some 30 miles past the Israeli side of the armistice demarcation line but which is Egyptian territory under the 1949 agreement.

Ike Announces Drought Aid

WICHITA, Kan. — President Eisenhower announced plans to earmark $76 million for immediate aid to drought-crippled farmers and ranchers Tuesday night in completing a 4,500-mile tour that took him into six water-short states.

In addition to immediate assistance, the President listed a series of long-range plans designed to help overcome the worst drought disaster in this country in modern history.

Three-Fifths Of Total Goes For Defense

Rules Out Tax Cut Despite Small Surplus

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today proposed a $71.8 billion spending budget—the biggest ever in peacetime America.

He said three-fifths of this huge amount is necessary to provide U. S. and allied strength "to deter and, if need be, to defeat aggression" in this still uncertain world.

HE RULED OUT any general tax cut this year despite a small projected surplus. He asked for higher postal rates.

The President's Secretary of Treasury, George M. Humphrey, emphatically called for reduced spending and tax cuts in future budgets.

If this isn't done, "we'll have a depression that will curl your hair," said Humphrey without committing himself to any definite time element. He held out cautious hope that tax cuts could be started next year.

HUMPHREY MADE it plain to reporters that the record spending proposed in the new budget for 1958 was distasteful to him, although he went along with it.

The official budget itself was presented to Congress with a message from the President, which was read by clerks.

The Eisenhower budget was studded with records for spending exceeding those of peacetime Roosevelt and Truman years—for U. S. armed forces $38 billion, for farm programs, for atomic and others.

His new budget for fiscal 1958 was in the black for the third straight year. The surplus of revenues over spending was estimated at $1.8 billion for the new year starting next July 1.

But to help check inflation Mr. Eisenhower said, the surplus must be used further to reduce the federal debt which now stands at $275.7 billion.

"THE PROSPECTIVE budget surplus in the fiscal year 1958 will reinforce the restraining effect of present credit and monetary policies," he said in a new warning of inflation dangers.

Of the total spending, about six-tenths—$45.3 billion—would be for national security, including military and economic aid to U. S. allies. U. S. armed forces would get $38 billion. These programs, he said, will "provide a wise and reasonable degree of protection for the nation."

Borchers Guilty, Jury Decides

PASADENA — Walter G. Borchers, meek-mannered 45-year-old insurance executive, has been convicted by a jury of eight men and four women of second-degree murder in the fatal shooting of his sweetheart, Dorothy McCully.

PITTSBURGH UP — A TWA Constellation and a twin-engine Capital DC3 collided at Greater Pittsburgh Airport today while being taxied to their respective takeoff positions. There were no injuries.

LORIS, S. C. UP — A family of six died Tuesday night in a fire that destroyed a one-story building with a cafe in the front and six rooms of living quarters in the rear.

New Hearing Slated by County Supervisors for Desert Turf Club

It appeared this week that the county board of supervisors will hold a new hearing on the application of the Desert Turf Club for a permit to operate a quarter horse race track in the Rancho Mirage area, and that the date for such a hearing will be set by the board early in March.

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., advised the supervisors that the District Court of Appeals issued an order prohibiting any action which would in any way interfere with the board of supervisors right to promptly call and complete a public hearing on the Desert Turf Club application.

He recalled that the supervisors had continued a hearing set for Oct. 15, 1956 until after proceedings in the Superior and Appellate Courts were concluded.

"Unless the District Court of Appeals orders a re-hearing, or unless the Supreme Court orders a hearing before March 4, 1957, it will be in order at your first regular meeting after that date to set the application of Desert Turf Club for hearing and direct the clerk to give notice thereof," Sullivan told the board.

LA Grand Jury Starts Check Into 'Body' Story

HOLLYWOOD — The Los Angeles County grand jury opened an investigation today into the kidnapping story of actress Marie The Body McDonald, which police claim has perplexing discrepancies.

The statuesque blonde and 16 other persons linked with the case were subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury by Superior Judge Louis H. Burke Tuesday at the request of District Attorney William B. McKesson.

THE SURPRISE action came after police said they had uncovered no positive evidence in probing Miss McDonald's story of how she was abducted from her home by two men Jan. 4, held captive for 24 hours and then dumped off on the desert.

Miss McDonald and other principal witnesses were scheduled to testify Thursday. Today, the grand jury was to be given an account of stories told by the blonde beauty and other figures in the bizarre case.

THE GRAND JURY will hear from all witnesses who previously had been questioned by police about the kidnapping. McKesson said. These include Miss McDonald's mother, Mrs. Marie Tuboni; actor Michael Wilding; newspaper columnist Harrison Carroll; and the actresses' ex-husband, wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl, Chief of police William H. Parker told McKesson he was making no headway in the investigation of the kidnapping and felt a grand jury probe was justified "to see if any crime has been committed."

McKesson said Parker told him he wanted to get the witnesses before the grand jury "because then they will be under oath and perhaps that will be the way the citizens of this county will finally get at the truth of the entire matter."

Optimists Hear Vice President

PROCEEDS FROM the wishing well in the Plaza during the month of December, went to the Palm Springs Lions Club's Blind Fund. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jeffery, new managers of the Plaza, pour the coins into a money bag held by Lions Club president Joe Henderson. The amount will be close to $50 after it has been counted. Proceeds from the well this month will go to the B.P.O. Elks Lodge 1905. (Desert Sun Photo).

Highlights of President's Budget Message Listed

WASHINGTON — Here is a digest of the main points in President Eisenhower's budget message to Congress.

The message sketched his whole legislative program for the year as well as the proposed federal spending budget for the 1958 fiscal year starting next July 1.

INCOME AND OUTGO: Budget is balanced for third year in a row. Calls for record peacetime spending of $71.8 billion—an increase of $2.9 billion over current year.

Assuming continued prosperity, revenue is estimated at $73.6 billion, up $3 billion. Prospective surplus of $1.8 billion would be applied to a reduction of federal debt.

TAXES: "Must be retained at present rates" to fight inflation. Congress should consider, "some relief" for small business, with "minimum" loss of revenue. No cuts for anybody else.

Asked one year extension of corporation and excise levies that are scheduled to drop April 1.

MAIL: The administration will seek higher postal rates, totaling $654 million a year. Promised better mail service if rates are raised.

INTEREST: On the $275 billion federal debt, will cost $7.4 billion or about 10 per cent of whole budget. Although debt is going down, interest rate is going up in tight money market. Debt should be down to $269 billion by June 30, 1958.

DEFENSE: Proposed an increase of $2 billion in military spending to total of $38 billion. Armed forces will remain about the same size but will buy "growing quantities" of costly new weapons to boost firepower.

Guided missile procurement up 35 per cent. Air force will get more B-52 jet bombers to replace B-36's. U. S. Marine divisions are equipped with a "variety" of atomic weapons.

ATOMIC: A spending increase of $400 million to push production of "tactical" weapons for defense and power reactors for peace. Private industry should take the initiative in building atomic power plants; warned that government will if industry doesn't. Will expand research on harnessing H-bomb reactions for peace-time power.

FARMS: Proposed a record outlay of $5 billion to support farm prices, meet soil bank payments and otherwise aid farmers.

Asked for one-year extension of law permitting sale of farm surpluses for foreign currencies; also new legislation authorizing barter of surpluses with Iron Curtain countries. Farmers who use all the wheat they grow for feed and seed should be exempted from marketing quotas. A new corn program will be proposed.

HOUSING: Five per cent interest should be permitted on VA home loans. The rate, now pegged by law at 4 per cent, won't attract enough lenders in tight money market.

The government should buy more mortgages through Federal National Mortgage Association to provide more funds for home builders.

GAS BILLS: Recommend that Congress enact a new version of the natural gas bill which he vetoed last year because of "arrogant" lobbying tactics. The "basic objective" of vetoed bill-to free gas producers from federal public utility-type regulation-is desirable.

NATURAL RESOURCES: Renewed his endorsement of Frying-Pan Arkansas River development project in Colorado, asked "prompt" decision by Congress on developing Niagara power project.

Recommended TVA be allowed to sell revenue bonds to finance new power generating facilities. Federal spending on power, irrigation, reclamation projects would total $1.5 billion, up $167 million.

VETERANS: Legislative proposals on veterans benefits being prepared. Although a special commission headed by Gen. Omar N. Bradley recommended cutbacks, the proposals will add $100 million to veterans costs in fiscal 1958. Prospective total next year $5 billion.

HEALTH: Urged federal aid and dental schools; increased funds for medical research, hospital construction, and other health programs; again asked legislation to expand and improve health insurance programs by authorizing risk-pooling.

CHILDREN: Proposed federal grants to help train special teachers for mentally-retarded children; also grants to states to combat juvenile delinquency.

WELFARE: $1.7 billion for federal contributions to state public assistance programs which will help 5 million old, infirm and poor people next year. School lunches will cost $100 million in cash, $200 million in farm products. This is all aside from social security insurance which will pay oldsters

Arson Check Started Into New Church Fire

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Authorities today checked the possibility an arsonist touched off a general alarm fire Tuesday night that destroyed a 50-year-old Methodist church, damaged another church and ruined three office buildings in the heart of this central New York metropolis.

Three firemen were injured when a church wall collapsed during the blaze which raged out of control for four hours. Five others were treated for frostbite incurred while fighting the fire in sub-zero weather.

FIRE CHIEF Francis R. Ferren, who ordered an immediate investigation, said he was "skeptical of all church fires in this part of the country."

"There have been too many of these church fires for us to brush off as being accidental," he said. Damage was estimated at $500,000, but authorities said this figure probably would be revised upward after further investigation.

DESTROYED WERE the First Methodist Church, an adjoining two-story office building housing the Mutual Federation of New York Underwriters and the Onondaga County Public Works Commission; the three-story Wesleyan Publishing Association Building and a structure housing the offices of the Methodist Church and Bishop Earl W. Ladden.

Flames also damaged the rear of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, which served as an underground "railway station" for slaves en route to Canada after escaping from the South during the Civil War.

Humphrey Bogart Is Going to Be Missed in Hollywood, Especially by Members of Press; One of Honest Actors

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD — In a town full of yes-men and beauties off an assembly line, Humphrey Bogart to the press stood out like a diamond as one of Hollywood's few honest actors and colorful characters.

Today those who knew Bogie during the filming of his 69 movies mourn him. But none will miss him more than the Hollywood press.

THE BALDISH, cynical actor was one of few stars who fearlessly barked what he felt to reporters. His attitude and way of living was always good for an item.

In 1949, for example, Bogie was hauled into a New York court for flooring a cutie in a nightclub in a fight over a fuzzy toy panda. The press descended upon the actor with a delicate question: Was he drunk?

Bogart, his face lined with the memories of a thousand parties, snorted, "Certainly. Isn't everybody drunk at 4 a.m.?"

Bogart was fascinating to watch at work. He knew what he wanted and backed down to few men. During filming of "The Caine Mutiny," he invented a piece of business wherein he constantly buttered toast. The technical advisor for the movie insisted an Annapolis man would break the toast into fragments.

"I went to school at Andover," Bogart, son of a wealthy New York surgeon, reported. "Are you trying to tell me Annapolis turns out better gentlemen?"

Producer Stanley Kramer compromised by trimming the crusts.

DURING MOST of his Hollywood career, Bogart was under contract to Warners Studio. He and Jack Warner were often at war. During one contract fight, Bogart told New York newsmen, "Jack Warner is a creep."

Alcorn May Be Dropped For GOP Chairmanship

WASHINGTON — Some opposition built up today to election of H. Meade Alcorn of Connecticut to the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. There was no indication yet, however, that the opposition would be effective.

Alcorn, the front-running candidate for the job, was understood to have White House approval. The GOP committee will meet next Tuesday to elect a successor to Leonard W. Hall, the retiring chairman. The choice actually will be that of President Eisenhower.

A VETERAN national committeeman, who asked not to be identified, conceded that there is opposition to Alcorn, but said he expected the committee to go along with the election of its Connecticut member to the chairmanship. Another highly placed Republican

Upon his return to Hollywood, Warner chastised the actor for the remark.

"Jack," replied Bogart, looking hurt, "you don't even know what I mean by creep."

"I have a dictionary right here before me," said Warner. "It means a loathsome, crawling thing."

"But Jack," said the indignant Bogart, "I spell it with a 'K'."

BOGART ALSO FOUGHT spiritedly with his wives. Of his battles with Mayo Method, he once said, "Look, she's an actress out of work. She's got to have scenes to play and I have to give her the cues." He liked to tell about the true he made with Lauren Bacall: He refused to put one foot on his yacht and he refused to light her cigarettes.

He snarled at some of the press but secretly found fun in giving stories to interviewers. He invited some columnists to visit him during his fatal illness. The last time I saw Bogart he was belting down a scotch and demanding I tell him the latest gossip around town.

THE BEST STORY Bogart ever gave me was a blast at the Actor's studio's T-shirt school of acting. He got so carried away he took out an ad in the movie trade papers featuring a photograph of Bogart, Joe Wolcott and Max Baer in torn sweatshirts. The caption read, "New old actors available."

When Bogart first arrived in Hollywood he wore a shabby coat and shrugged, "Let those other hams spend their money on clothes—I'm saving mine."

BUT BY HIS DEATH he was a wealthy man who liked fine living. He drew $200,000 a picture. He owned a $150,000 whitewashed brick home, two Jaguars, three boxer dogs and a $55,000 boat.

His favorite restaurant was the swanky Romanoff's. He invariably arrived without a tie. Bogart was can said a backfire has built up against Alcorn in support of Ray C. Bliss, Ohio State Republican chairman.

IF ALCORN should be sidetracked, the presumed beneficiary would be Bliss or New York Chairman L. Judson Morehouse the only person Mike Romanoff ever admitted in such attire.

Despite his gruffness, Bogie was a warm, tender person. He regarded his wife, "Betty" Bacall, with pride and affection. He openly cried at their wedding ceremony. And once, when asked if he wanted to relive any part of his life, he said, "Yes—the time I was courting Betty."

AUCTIONEER HARPO Marx, zaniest member of the famed Marx clan, sparkplugged the first annual Open Wonder Palms Bridge Tournament runoff at the Wonder Palms Hotel Saturday. Aided by Mrs. Arnold Kauder, of Los Angeles, West Coast Bridge champ, Harpo auctioned off some of the best western bridge talent for the tournament's Calcutta player's pool. Harpo didn't take part in the tournament, but his capers during the auction started the two-day bridge match off with a roar of laughter. (Desert Sun Photo).

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

The second "Coronation" at Shadow Mountain Club attracted a large crowd Monday night. The guest of honor was Irene Mathias (Mrs. Don Parks) who was hostess and program director at the club three years ago. She was given a warm welcoming reception by her many friends. Mrs. Parks lives in the east and will be here only a day or so.

Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) Wenner of Freeport, Ill., have opened their Sun Lodge and will enjoy the desert for a month or two.

Mrs. Emily Lane of St. Petersburg, Fla., stopped here enroute home to spend the week-end with the Nolen Allens.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Tucker (he has a T. V. show) were guests at Shadow Mountain Terrace this last week along with Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Michs of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stoltz of Bradford, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Kaune of Laguna.

Gerard Albersheim, noted pianist, will accompany Ruth Tippet, soprano, when she gives a program before the Palm Desert Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Salmon of San Mateo are returning home this week. The Salmons came for a ten day visit but became fascinated by the desert and they spent a whole month here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Baird ("L.G. and Anne") hosted a cocktail party last week for a small group of local and western friends.

The Parkers have had an interesting group these last few days: Mr. and Mrs. Elstrom of Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. Elstrom, Jr., and children; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stauffer of Aberdeen, Wash. (the Stauffers plan a month's visit); Mr. and Mrs. Glen Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Marshall of North Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, famous film director, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Champ of San Diego.

The usual Saturday night dancing group were "top-side" in the Shadow Room. Mr. and Mrs. John Vale celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with cocktails and dinner. Last Monday night, Mr. Vale was the Prince and Mrs. Vale the Queen of Coronation.

Other members and guests included Tony Joseph and party of nine—(this whole group were weekend visitors at Hospitality House); Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kapp, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lewis, Mrs. Arthur Pautz and her daughter and son-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton, Art Ryan of the Los Angeles Times, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paul, Dorothy Grand and F. S. Padon.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, with the Forrest Bowers, the Otto Allgoewers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dahlberg with the Ira Johnsons, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Bolander, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Obern and Mrs. Obern's mother.

And M. and Mrs. Walter Lantz, with Mr. and Mrs. J. Sinn, the William Weners with Cliff Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Erick Bergquist and party, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Chadiourne, the A. R. Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. John MacConaty and the Harold Wrights.

It Doesn't Pay to Be Young As Auto Insurance Goes Up

It doesn't pay to be young these days—not when it comes to buying auto insurance.

That's the opinion of California auto insurance men who today announced sweeping increases in rates for all categories of automotive policies.

Increases will be felt hardest by drivers in the under-25 age brackets, who will pay out an average of $50 more for their insurance in rate alterations effective today.

IN THE PALM SPRINGS area, however, increases will be just about the lowest in the state. The desert area is ranked in Class 8 for insurance rating purposes—the bottom of the rate scale.

Revised automobile insurance rates, proposed by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association were attributed to increases in auto accidents and claims, and higher costs of repairs and materials.

A SURVEY OF Palm Springs area insurance men disclosed that insurance premium payments will go up an average of about $10 for public liability and property damage policies for drivers over 25 years and about $30 for drivers over 25 years and about $30 for drivers under 25, depending upon individual circumstances.

However, insurance men explained, cars owned and driven by men in the under 25 category constitute a small portion of insured cars.

WOMEN, OFFICIALS said, are not affected by the changes in the under 25, or "hazardous" category. This is for men only.

A typical liability insurance rate increase schedule was prepared by Harold Hunt and Earl Hough, of Weingarten and Hough Insurance Counselors.

It showed that drivers of pleasure cars can expect to pay $6 more a year for their $5000-$10,000 bodily injury policies. No change for property damage policies.

Motorists who use their cars to drive more than 10 miles to work will find their rates hiked from $29 to $37 for bodily injury.

FAMILY AUTOS occasionally driven by a man under 25 require policies costing $12 more for B-1, and $3 for property damage. Drivers under 25 who are exclusive operators of an auto will pay $35 more for B-1 and $13 for PD.

"It sure doesn't pay to be young, from a liability standpoint, that is," Hough reflected. "But when you compare our increases with those of Northern California, or the East Coast, you'll find that we're pretty lucky down here."

In the San Francisco area, Hough pointed out, men under 25 are now paying $70 more for their policies, while Los Angeles' younger drivers are paying fees $60 more than before.

MATERIAL DAMAGE rates, involving collision and comprehensive insurance, are up correspondingly, but no figures are yet been issued to the individual companies. Riverside County drivers, however, can expect material damage policy increases of about $12 for over-25 categories and about $36 for under 25 groups.

League of Cities To Meet Jan. 17

Riverside League of Cities will meet Thursday night at the Mission Inn in Riverside at 7:30. Members of the Palm Springs City Council are planning to attend.

Up for discussion will be the new county wide sales tax proposition and the county charter form of government.

Popular Ride

BOSTON — The home of patriot Paul Revere is the No. 1 attraction for sightseers visiting Boston, a taxicab company's survey showed. Revere's home is in the North End, only a few blocks from Old North Church. It was in the church's belfry that the two lanterns were hung that signalled the start of Revere's famous midnight ride April 19, 1775.

Albon Carleton Dies at Phoenix

Word has been received here of the death of Albon Carleton, a frequent Palm Springs visitor.

Carleton, father of Mrs. Lorena C. LeGro, Palm Springs, died Jan. 10 at his home in Phoenix, Ariz., following a long illness. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Caroline Carleton.

An Easy Trip

FISHKILL, N.Y. — Frank Oster of nearby Osborne Hill bundled himself up for a hunting trip into the woods. He had oiled his rifle and tested it the night before. He got only 300 feet from the front door when he sighted and shot a deer.

Realtors Plan Meeting Jan. 17

Palm Springs Real Estate Board will hold its monthly business meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, at the American Legion Hall, according to President Theresa Press.

All local members are asked to be present, along with Realtors from Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs.

Thanks At Last

WESTERLY, R.I. — Lifeguard Frank Turano was quite surprised recently when he received a thank-you letter from a young woman he had rescued from rough surf. It was the first note of appreciation Turano had received in 22 years as a lifeguard during which he has made an estimated 300 rescues.

City Council Invites Tribal Group to Meet

Palm Springs City Council this week is sending a letter of invitation to the Aqua Caliente Tribal Council asking them to a pre-council luncheon at El Mirador next Monday at noon.

Mayor Florian Boyd late last year appointed two members of the Tribal Council to the off-street parking committee, and the entire council invited tribal council members to meet with them in a council lunch.

The discussion usually concerns the local Indian owned land, and exchange of opinions by the two groups.

Fifteen Members of New County Building Committee Are Appointed

Fifteen members of a newly created county building study committee were appointed by the county board of supervisors this week, each supervisor naming three.

With the exception of Supervisor Paul Anderson, the board's new chairman, the appointees were chosen from the district of the supervisor naming them.

Supervisor Anderson said that if Supervisor William Jones of the first district did not name Elvin Downs of Corona, he himself would do so, and he did. His reason was that there should be more than one member of the former county building commission on the committee, and he said he believed Downs to be very capable.

THE ONLY OTHER member of the old building commission named to the committee Monday was its chairman, Richard Hampson of Riverside, chosen by Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain.

Others named by Anderson were William Hughes of Rubidoux and Dominic Tavaglione of Riverside. Chamberlain's other two appointees are Robert Berlin of Banning and Arthur Swanner of Riverside. Berlin is out of his district as it is now, but within two boundaries which it will have after a portion of the fourth district is transferred to the third, as ordered by the board last week.

SUPERVISOR GEORGE Berkey selected from his fourth district John W. Williams of Palm Springs, J. E. Mason of Blythe, and Kay Oleson of Indio.

Named from the fifth district by Supervisor Fred McCall, were Fay Gillette of Little Lake, Sherman Taschner of Hemet, and Dean Voss of Perris.

Berkey said he hoped the building study, which is to be made with the thought that a new attempt will be made to put over a bond issue to finance it, will get under way at once and be completed promptly. He said two of the three he named accepted only on the condition that action be taken "in a hurry."

NAMED TO THE committee by Supervisor Jones were Jack Hammond of Corona, Stanley Root of Elsinore and John Hammer of Arlington.

It was decided that names of the appointees should be given to the county planning director with instructions that he arrange to hold a meeting of the committee "immediately."

The old building commission spent a great deal of time on its study of the county's building needs and issued a detailed plan with alternate bond issue possibilities. The $4,316,000 bond issue voted on was turned down by the people.

Waters Named to County Board

L. R. Waters of Palm Desert was appointed by the supervisors Monday to replace Harry B. Cannon, Palm Desert attorney whose term expires this month, on the Coachella Valley Mosquito Abatement District board.

Cannon said he didn't want reappointment due to pressure of his law practice, and suggested that waters be named to the post.

Church Officers Named for Year

New congregational officers of Our Savior's Lutheran installed during the Sunday service were: Cy Oistad, president; Brownell McGrew, secretary; Orvil Zappe, treasurer; Harold Tonne, financial secretary, and W. Eldyn Miller, trustee.

Both the new officers and the pastor, the Rev. Walter H. Reuning, pledged themselves to "faithful leadership of the congregation for the coming year."

First aid station for injured motorists manned by trained personnel have been opened by the Red Cross in Germany.

Hobbies in Area Trailer Parks Interesting and Entertaining

"Hobbies" are an interesting, instructive and fascinating part of the colorful entertainment in the Mobile Home Parks and many of the residents are recognizing these classes as an unusual opportunity to do something they always thought they would like to do, but had never made a beginning.

Witnessing the large class at work in "Shell Craft" at Tramview and seeing the many things that can be made and decorated with shells, leads one to believe that almost everyone has a latent desire for self-expression in designing and creating something in their own particular chosen hobby.

THE DISPLAY included everything from ear-rings with matching necklaces, pins, bags, corsages, powder boxes, ash trays, flower plaques, and even a mouse trap.

This interesting "Shell Craft" class is taught by the capable Mildred Ward, a resident of Tramview. She began the class only last season, with most of them beginners. However, members of the class were awarded individually, the highest trophy down to the last ribbon, at the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.

Mrs. Ward says she is proud of her awards, not because of personal glory, but because it makes her feel that she has taught the right way.

Horsely Elk

SODA SPRINGS, Ida. (AP)—Angus Stocking complained to Sheriff Ralph Mariott that some elk hunter had shot and wounded his horse which he had left tied to a pine tree while he was hunting. He asked the weekly Caribou County Sun to pass the word along to hunters that "I've never seen an elk with a bridle and saddle on in all my years of residing in the county."

TRAMVIEW ALSO has weekly classes in copper enamel, textile painting and pine needle work. Much hidden talent is discovered through these hobby classes, and the residents of the Parks especially enjoy the friendly gathering and companionship of working with others of like interests.

Class members are Claudia Dohmann, Esther Wood, Jane Yantis, Muriel Smith, Jennie Sawyer, Leona Bridges, Martha Dunn, Mary Pierce, Jessie Mensch, Olive Brown, Doris Sprague, Clara Carlson, Hazel Rizer, Bertha Tappe, Pearl Hansen, Frances Cornwell, Amelia Hernes, Grace Haywood, Martha Yost, Alice Soth, Muriel Fletcher, Olivia Clark, Helen Nutter, Fay Gergu, Marie Bare, Mary Connell and Bing Sefton.

Kopelsons, Beck to Give Program at Men's Club

Martin Beck, actor and producer of the Palm-Springs Players Stage, together with Alan Kopelson, pianist, who with his actress wife, Edith, tours under the management of G. H. Dalrymple with a concert of "Music and Drama" playing to universities throughout the country, will give a special program for the Men's Club of the Jewish Community Center at its meeting tonight Wednesday, at 8:15 p.m.

Martin Beck is a KCMJ announcer, and Alan Kopelson is an outstanding piano instructor of Beverly Hills and Palm Springs, with many former students concertizing in Europe and this country.

Allocation of Funds to Area In Trailer Fees Top $21,000

Allocations of funds to the Palm Springs area from receipts of house trailer tax fees amounted to more than $20,000 for the first six months of 1956, the California Trailer Park Association reported today.

Tables listing apportionment of Motor Vehicle Department taxes on trailers showed that the Palm Springs Unified School District received $13,979 as its share of tax fees from Dec. 31, 1955, through May 31, 1956.

In addition to taxes levied on trailers registered in unincorporated areas of Riverside County, trailer taxation inside Palm Springs city limits drew $7,318 from the state tax pool.

Mobile home owners paid a grand total of $97,000 in taxes within Riverside County during the six-month period. Association officials noted that it marked the first time that schools have received a share of the trailer in-lieu tax dollars.

I wish to thank all our friends for their kindness during the bereavement of my beloved husband, Leo.—God Bless You.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Case for Continuity

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Richard Brevard Russell of Georgia made the best speech of the 85th Congress to the surprise of nobody at all. Babe Ruth, with his opening day homers, and Walter Johnson, who used to take the ball pitched out by the President and throw shut-outs with it, were other familiar champions often seen in Washington who started the season in front and stayed there all the way.

As the champion of Senate traditionalism and the foe of tramp notions like "inherent" or "implied" meanings of the Constitution, Senator Russell is as sound and forceful in January as in June. It's a safe bet down the years that when speeches are made on the Constitution, Dick Russell will generally make the best.

WITH HIS DEVOTION to what's tried and true in American life and politics, Senator Russell seems always to conjure up the sacred or significant past. While he was pleading the Senate's case as a "continuing body," one which lives by established law and practice rather than by political whim or expediency, there flashed upon one inward eye in the press gallery a scene in the Senate of long ago.

The Vice President, on March 2, 1895, was making a good-bye speech from the chair. "Every gentleman was silent," wrote a Senator of that day. "Not a whisper was heard." The Vice President was speaking with the authority of a gentleman in deep trouble. A bankrupt in name and fortune, under indictment for murder in two states, soon to give up his Congressional immunity and become a fugitive from the law, within a matter of months to be arrested for treason, Aaron Burr gave the Senate this advice from a wise and very unhappy heart:

THIS HOUSE IS a sanctuary; a citadel of law, of order, and of liberty," he said. "It is here— it is here in this exalted refuge—here, if anywhere, will be resistance made to the storms of political frenzy and the silent arts of corruption."

"And," added Aaron Burr, "if the Constitution be destined ever to perish by the sacrilegious hands of the demagogue or the usurper, which God avert, its expiring agonies will be witnessed on this floor."

No wonder, as an eye witness wrote, "the whole Senate were (sic) in tears." My own hardened emotions were aquiver. When Senator Russell, almost as eloquently as Burr, gave forth the same solemn warning. He read the Senate that part of the Constitution which sets forth the structure of the Senate membership. One third is chosen every three years, while two-thirds remain in being as a continuing body with continuing rules.

He observed that the President of the Senate, the Vice President of the United States, is elected for four years by the people through the electoral college, not by the Senators. Hence, the United States Senate, said the Senator from Georgia, was intended by the founding fathers to be different from other parliamentary bodies. And as a unique institution, the Senate had remained all these years the senior legislative body of the greatest nation known to man.

SENATOR RUSSELL's argument prevailed despite the opposition of 38 Senators, who had as assist from Vice President Nixon. How instructive it would be—and for my part how sadistically enjoyable—if only it were possible to X-ray the motives of these 39 dissidents.

Many of the motives, I'm sure, would show up pure. It's possible, of course, to agree with Mr. Nixon that a Senate, bound by its predecessors, is denied the Constitutional right to determine its own rules of procedure. But some of the motives, it's equally certain, would turn up smudged with stupidity, expediency and un-American mentality. Some fraction of those 39 minds is untethered, let us say, from the sort of stable thinking that a stable nation requires.

THERE MUST BE some Senatorial brain cells (not necessarily the whole person himself) that are incapable of grasping the concept of continuity in a political institution like the Senate. There must be other cells in the Senate which respond to the temptation of what's politically popular or expedient rather than what's right. And there must be brain cells in the upper chamber (again, I don't mean the entire man, just a few of his cells) which do not entirely approve of America and would like to "make America over," as the expression used to be.

Well, to the extent that such extraneous motivations do exist in the Senate, there is the best argument for stand-pat traditionalism. And this affection for tradition is what makes speeches like Dick Russell's and Aaron Burr's so moving to the American heart.

Count that day lost
When the sun doesn't shine,
Not only the day
But also the wine.

Days when the sun does not shine in Palm Springs some time between sun-up and sunset are few and far between. The Chamber of Commerce can probably give you the exact number during any given year. I'm not even guessing.

But they are rare and as a result Ruth Hardy, councilwoman and owner of Ingleside Inn has a standing offer to guests at her hostelry.

SHE PROMISES, that on any day during the time her Ingleside Inn is in operation and entertaining guests, on which the sun does not smile on Palm Springs some time during the day, she will pop corks on champagne bottles and allow them to indulge.

It was a safe bet. That is, most of the time. But last week a new record was set. There were two consecutive days during which the sun did not break through the clouds. First time that had happened since the offer was first made.

THEN CAME the third day. Still clouds up above. The day inched along as days do and the time for sunset was nearing.

Mrs. Hardy began to wonder if perhaps she hadn't bee to rash a few years ago when she thought up that champagne gimmick.

As sunset time neared and no sun, she thought she might as well gag it up. Put on just one bottle of the sparkling wine, round it with ginger ale and make like she had had it.

Revive that old song: "And her tears flowed like wine."

But just before the sun was due to sink behind San Jacinto the weather crossed her up again.

After costing her money for two days, the sun broke through the clouds and spoiled the gag.

EDITOR'S NOTE — Honestly, almost three days here without sun is really UNUSUAL.

INEZ ROBB:

The Hiss Defence

This is the first of two columns in which Inez Robb, who as a reporter covered both perjury trials of Alger Hiss, delves into the background of Hiss's book, "The Court of Public Opinion," to be published this spring. Mrs. Robb sees it as one of the most controversial books to be published in the United States in 1957.

The beginning of each new year is, by tradition, a time of prophecy. But it does not require much of a prophetic gift on my part to predict that one of the most controversial books to be published in the United States in 1957 will be his "Accuse by Alger Hiss," which he has titled "The Court of Public Opinion."

It is a foregone conclusion that it will blow up a storm in political as well as private circles, and rouse the same angry passions that marked his trial and conviction for perjury in one of the most sensational trials in American jurisprudence.

From the moment this man, who rose so high in the councils of his government, became involved in such a case, it was inevitable that he write his apology. It was in the cards that this articulate man would set down his version of the trial that centered on his involvement in Communist infiltration of the Federal government in the '30s. And, perhaps, provide some answers to "Witness," the book published in 1952 by his accuser, Whittaker Chambers.

THE ONLY SURPRISE is that seven years have elapsed since Hiss's conviction in January, 1950, and two since his release from prison (where he served 44 months) before his book is ready. I have learned that it was not written in prison, where many suspected he would thus spend his time, but after his release.

"The book is not an autobiography, and it doesn't editorialize," I was told by a spokesman for Alfred A. Knopf, one of the nation's respected publishing firms which will issue the Hiss book either in late March or early April.

"Hiss, as you probably know, is a lawyer," the Knopf spokesman said. "And this is a book written in the careful manner and prose of a lawyer. It is by no stretch of the imagination a 'bleeding heart' volume. I find it careful, well-considered and convincing."

"The book begins when the phone rings in Hiss's home and he is asked to come down to the Committee for the first time and it ends when Judge Henry W. Goddard refuses Hiss's last appeal after the second trial."

THE KNOPF spokesman went on to say that at the time of the book's publication, Hiss "might probably" hold a press conference. (Since his release from prison almost 24 months ago, he has avoided the press.) "He doesn't want to be interviewed now. He feels he's said all he wants to say at the moment," the spokesman said. Then he added:

"We at Knopf are proud to be publishing this kind of book which gives a man his chance to present his side of the case."

Knopf certainly has a potential customer in me. As a reporter who covered both Hiss trials and thought him fairly and rightfully convicted, I am eager to read what this ingenious man has now thought up to present in his own behalf.

Any newspaper in any town quite often becomes, almost daily one might say, the depot of all human emotions.

Sometimes happiness for some person is the message, and quite often it is tragedy. If you're real good, it is said your name never gets into a newspaper; if you do something bad then all society wants to read about it. Events which may affect the life in a city, county, state or nation also hit the columns of a newspaper. But when a neuro-surgeon performs a most delicate operation on the skull of a patient it may receive about four lines somewhere next to the classified section.

YESTERDAY, INTO the Desert Sun office walked an elderly man whose face reflected tragedy. With him was his sister. The man's name is Glenn Boyer and he has lived in Palm Springs for more than 12 years. The sister, Mrs. Ethel Bartlett, was from Eugene, Oregon.

"Tell me please," Mr. Boyer began, "if you can find out for sure if my grandson was killed in an airplane crash in Long Beach today? My sister and I barely caught the name as it came over the radio but we want to be sure, if it's my grandson."

WE INFORMED the gentleman with the grief stricken face that if he called the United Press Association in Los Angeles that news gathering agency would either confirm or deny the report.

As I spoke I noticed a shade of perplexity cover the man's face. To call the United Press was something beyond his complete understanding and seemingly involved great barriers.

We motioned he and his sister into an office and called U.P. Yes, it was his grandson. First Lt. Dale Fortine of the Marine Corps stationed at El Toro, his combat jet plane on fire, attempted to leap from his ship but his chute did not open. The fighter crashed into a book bindery and killed two persons including Mr.

EARL WILSON:

'Twas Our 21st Anniversary

NEW YORK — Twenty-one years married! Hey, that's not bad in our league. As Andre Baruch said, "That's the MAJOR leagues!" Wonder if we can make it 25—in 1967?

"Nice of Frank Sinatra to choose your anniversary to open at the Copacabana," Dagmar mentioned.

Sure was! And of Marlene Dietrich, Yul Brynner, Faye Emerson, Joe DiMaggio, Judy Garland, Pat Boone, Jane Kean, Carmine DeSapio, Julius La Rosa, Sammy Davis, Jr., and Johnnie Raye to celebrate our Anniversary—incidentally Frank, it's tremendous opening, also.

"Glad you two lost weight this year—otherwise you couldn't get in!" the maitre d' chirped when we arrived in the overstuffed Copacabana, where even then tables looked thinner.

'Twas a sentimental touch, for the B. W. and I first saw Frankie at Meadowbrook with Tommy Dorsey about 1941. He was then unknown.

That boy'll be another Bing Crosby," the B. W. said.

"You're nuts, he's too skinny," I shouted. "I'm always right on those things."

Looking down on the crowd, Johnnie Raye, just turned 30, sighed, "That Marlene Dietrich's the only woman I know who makes me wish I was 20 years older!" Comedian Joey Bishop gazed out upon Sugar Ray Robinson, Edith Piaf, Judy Holliday, Errol Flynn, Dinah Shore, Nane-Fabry, Fernando Lamass, Arlene Dahl and a few others and said:

"Are all these people out of work?"

ILLUSTRATING THE demand for reservations, he said a man came in and said "Do you have a table for President Eisenhower?"

"Yes, sir," said the maitre d' practically saluting.

"Well, he can't come," the man announced. "I'll take his table."

Frankie sang for approximately an hour and also did several comedy bits in the manner of Joe E. Lewis whom he portrays in "The Joker Is Wild." Testing out his voice key, Frankie said, "If I could find my key—I'd use my room." Lifting his glass in a toast, he proclaimed, "Here's to our greatest ally—Scotland!"

Furthermore, he wished he had a piece of the picture. "I wish I had a piece of me," he added. I've gone to all the Sinatra openings I could make for 13 years and this was the greatest—and Peggy Connolly, his Texas gal, surely was one of the very, very prettiest.

Speaking of anniversaries, it was strange that several people chose to tell my B. W. she looked younger than ever and, indeed like Irene Dunne. Not a soul told Boyer's grandson. So you see, tragedy finds its way through the doors of a newspaper. It chronicles most of the events that happen to people in the city in which it is published. O'fawnyadsoesps oyo.....

TALKING TO Braven Dyer, ace sports columnist for the Los Angeles Times. He is here to play in the current golf tournament. He had just returned from Australia and the Olympic games and is a constant visitor to Palm Springs.

I believe that of all the departments in a metropolitan newspaper the best one in which to work as a newspaperman is the sports department.

As a matter of fact, some of our greatest newspaper men have been men who originally started reporting sports events. Braven, down here to play in the sun and in a game which he likes very much, was asked by us if he still had to do a daily piece for his newspaper. We also asked if he planned to write a story about the current golf tournament.

"Yes," he replied, "I plan to do a short story about the tournament but I just wish I could play and do nothing else for just a little while."

"WHY IS IT?" I asked, "every time our editors know we are going somewhere they keep a finger on our whereabouts and insist that we do a story if a story should occur."

"Well," smiled Dyer, "I don't mind. It will only take me about mind writing about this tournament minutes." And although his newspaper may not order him to do so, his many friends in Palm Springs expect that Braven will write a story about the tournament.

Ukie Sherin just came in with a laugh. "A pocketbook containing $4,000 and no identification was advertised in the lost and found columns. Several thousand people appeared to claim the loot. Somebody should have paged Diogenes."

'Who Eees Zees Meensky?'

HOLLYWOOD — Frank Sinatra went for a drive in Beverly Hills late at night and almost ran over a cutie walking her dog—Peggy Lee... Mitzi Gaynor screen-tested for the native girl in "South Pacific"... All those tea-time breaks have disillusioned Joan Crawford about British movie-making.

Universal is dickering Sir Laurence Olivier to play "Ataturk"... Fox is tailoring a triangle yarn for Ingrid Bergman, Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr... Ingrid also has one on the front burner with Alfred Hitchcock, for whom she made some of her biggest hits here... Fernanda Montell flipped out of her date at the Dunes, Las Vegas, where she was billed under some strip-tease, with this crack: "Who EES zees Meensky person?"

British theatres have collected almost $500,000 from passing the hat for Hungarian Relief. Why hasn't this been done here?... Universal reoptioned tiny Tim Hovey, age 8, for two more pictures this year. Tim's takes will be spread over the next 10 years at $1,000 a week... In some theatres throughout the country they've hired barbers to give Elvis Presley haircuts in the lobby, to plug "Love Me Tender." Don't raise the bridge, boys—lower the sideburns!... His love in bloom for Claire Bloom and Farley Granger... Movie deal is upcoming for Elleen Banning's new novel, "Home Before Dark." It's a "Snake Pit"-type yarn about a gal discharged from a mental institution as cured, except she ain't.

Princess Sylvia Gable Djordjadze was Bob Hornstein's date at the Donald Nelson party... Sylvia and her sister Vera wore identical tangerine-tinted gowns and somebody said, "You look like the Dolly Sisters." Sylvia snapped back, "No, darling, much younger—the Gish Sisters!"... John Payne and Reggie Gardiner, same party, reminisced about 1935, when John was Reggie's understudy in "At Home Abroad"... Nelson shot 3-D pictures of his guests. Gardiner told Cockney stories, and Billy Haines told unprintable stories, and the whole thing was Fun!

In the midst of that House of Lords hassle over the posters spread all over London showing Anita Ekberg in a fetching pose to publicize "Zarak," a poll was taken of Their Lordships with this result: one thought the poster "naughty," another called it "indecent," another said that whoever brought the matter up was a spoilsport, and the remaining seven Lordships inquired, "Who is Anita Ekberg?"

TV Topics — Jerry Lewis offered to introduce Rowan & Martin as "the new Martin & Lewis" if they would appear on his Jan. 19 tele spectacular but R&M are tied up in Texas that date. What a bum break for the boys...

Gloria Grey wound her singing stint with Arthur Godfrey and is back home in Hollywood testing for a Decca Records contract.

The "Do You Trust Your Wife?" brasshats got out their adding machine and totted up $332,900 as their giveaway total to the 125-man-&-wife teams that contested on the series during 1956. Still all-time champs of the program are the Steve Rowlands, who in 14 appearances pocketed $74,000... Dave Barry says the nightclub business is so bad he's had to do club dates—in five languages!

"Life of Riley" is filming nine of its segments in color... There's a new dramatic series in the cooker for Ray Milland. He'll direct as well as star... That 1952 Camel endorsement Dan Duryea did is haunting him to this day—Bob Montgomery's show for America Tobacco turned thumbs down on a Ruryea sequence because of it... JUST FOR THE RECORD

(Corpus Christi, Tex., CPL News)

Don't turn away speechless when you hear the charge that Uncle Sam is a "giveaway" artist these days. You can come right back with these pointed reminders:

The government sold some synthetic rubber plants that it built and operated during the World War II emergency. Uncle Sam got a good price for 'em, too.

And instead of a "giveaway," the government (and that includes you, Mr. Taxpayer) actually profited three ways. First, it got rid of a liability that was costing all us taxpayers money. Second, it got cash on the barrelhead for the sale. Third, it now collects taxes year by year from private enterprise owners now operating the plants.

Then there are the tidelands. Congress—Republicans and Democrats—decided the tidelands should go to the states.

Since the states' rights to the areas was affirmed, private oil companies have spent millions for exploration and development. New wells are mushrooming off our coastal shores. Soon the treasury will receive tidy sums in corporate income taxes which will grow for years.

Recently, Congress implemented moves to get the Department of Defense out of competition with private enterprise.

Was that a giveaway? Hardly! Uncle Sam has been operating most of these projects with substantial chunks of taxpayer money. Government enterprises don't pay taxes. So the net result is a two-way drain on the taxpayers.

Getting these enterprises back under private business operation means that they become lucrative sources of tax income for Uncle Sam. So who loses?

Interim Zoning Approved by County Supervisors for West Indio District

Interim zoning was approved by the county board of supervisors this week for the West Indio District, an area bounded on the north by 38th Avenue, on the south by 48th Avenue, east by Van Buren and the Indio city limits, and west by Smead Road in the Palm Desert district.

The interim zoning is to be in effect for one year pending completion of a comprehensive zoning plan for the area.

AN AVALANCHE of protests was received by the supervisors, but it soon became clear that practically all of them expressed a desire for zoning but opposed exclusion from the interim zoning of commercial zoning along Highway 111 and the Miles Avenue extension.

The county planning commission recommended that the interim zoning be for C-P restricted commercial in only the Indian Wells area along Highway 111; that single family residential zoning be applied easterly from Smead Road to within one-eighth mile of Washington, south to the La Quinta district, and north three-fourths of a mile, excepting the Indian Wells established commercial area; and that all of the remainder of the proposed district be in the W-2 watershed, recreation zone.

THIS RECOMMENDATION was approved by the board with the amendment that the interim zoning provide for C-P restricted commercial zoning for a distance of 600 feet back on each side of Highway 111 and Miles Avenue between Monroe and Washington. County counsel was ordered to prepare an ordinance to provide the interim zoning, and the planning commission was directed to prepare a map.

Numerous plans for development of the area were revealed in the course of the discussion. Hoagy Carmichael, noted musician, predicted that the southwest corner of Washington and 45th Avenue (Miles Avenue extension) will become a "key corner." He said that Washington should be extended southerly across 45th Avenue.

GEORGE STEIN said that close to $2,000,000 building is planned along Highway 111, including a $300,000 development between Monroe and Indian Wells for which the blueprints are in the making. He said the property sold at a high price and that property between Monroe and Washington on which there is no improvement has sold for $150 per front foot for highway development.

H. L. Ford told of plans for commercial development of property along the Miles Avenue extension.

JAMES HARBOE said that Miles Avenue from Palm Desert to Indio is going to become a very important road.

Carmichael said there is no doubt that the area will become the golf mecca of the west if all plans go through. He said however, that in all the proposed West Indio District zoning area there are only about 7,000 acres suitable for residential and commercial development. He expressed fear that if the long strip on both Highway 111 and Miles Avenue is zoned for commercial use 600 feet back on either side, there will not be enough room in the remainder of the 7,000 acres for residential building sufficient to warrant the large commercial area.

COUNTY PLANNING Director Tyler Suess questioned the advisability of putting such a long strip of commercial development in the final comprehensive zoning plan even though it is made a part of the interim plan.

Carmichael and others expressed a hope that it will take less than a year to complete the comprehensive plan.

Suess pointed out that non-conforming use permits may be granted under the interim zoning. He said that if the proposed use is what is believed to be in conformance with a good over-all plan, such permits are usually granted.

Real Estate Class Starts Here Tonight

Eph Feldman, first student to receive a master of sciences degree in real estate at the University of California where he received the Wall Street Journal Award as the outstanding senior in the department of finance will instruct a real estate class every Wednesday evening at 7:45 p. m. starting tonight at the American Legion Hall, 400 North Belardo Road in Palm Springs.

Holder of a California Adult Education Credential, Feldman has offered the course in real estate both privately and in the public schools for the past several years.

Main points of the course will be:

(1) Preparation for the new California salesman's and broker's first and second exams. It is now necessary to take a day long exam within one year of the first exam in order to qualify for a permanent license.

(2) Practicing a complete real estate transaction from beginning to end. This is an important part of the new exams.

The course is also open to property owners or potential property owners who desire a better understanding of real estate purchase and investment.

Boy Taught That Crime Doesn't Pay

DETROIT — Judge Joseph Gillis put a 17-year-old boy, charged with a $25 larceny, under a $25,000 bond. When the trial came up a week later, he explained the unusually high bond:

"I wanted the lad to sit quietly in jail and think things over."

The boy, who quit high school in the 12th grade, was asked if he knew the maximum penalty.

"Yes sir, four years," he answered.

"That's right," the judge replied. "For what you gained, that works out to $6.50 a year, about 54 cents a month or 14 cents a week. You've already spent a week in jail. Your earning power isn't so good is it?"

The boy meekly agreed, promised to go back to school, and was put on two years probation.

Loses Office

HARTFORD, Conn. — Used car dealer Dominco Pica reported that thieves dismantled his 10-by-20-foot office building and hauled it away one weekend.

THE SCHOENFELD TRIO will present the second concert in the Palm Springs Music Society Artist Series, at 4 p. m., Sunday, Jan. 27, at the Jewish Community Center. The trio consists of Alice (above) and Eleonore Schoenfeld, violinist and cellist, and Siegfried Schultz, pianist. Each member of the Schoenfeld Trio won renown as a solo artist before they joined forces as an ensemble group. Tickets for the concert are available at the Music Society's office at Santos Catering in the Center.

Marie McDonald Added New Chapter to Hollywood Drama

By ALINE MOSBY

United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD — The bizarre kidnapping of actress Marie McDonald adds another chapter to the shocking real-life Hollywood dramas that pale the stories the stars enact on the screen.

The beautiful blonde's story that she was forced at gunpoint to endure 24 hours of terror is the biggest "crime" in film town since the 1951 shooting of agent Jennings Lang by producer Walter Wanger.

HOLLYWOOD SHOOK with scandal when Wanger fired two slugs into the groin of the man he thought was stealing the love of his wife, Joan Bennett. Wanger and Miss Bennett reconciled following his release from prison. Lang's wife died of a heart attack and he later married singer Monica Lewis.

Robert Mitchum's arrest on charges of smoking marijuana in 1948 was another "scandal" that made headline.

The suicide of Carole Landis earlier that year was one of Hollywood's biggest tragedies. Her body was discovered by Rex Harrison.

HOLLYWOOD'S FIRST big "crime" was the 1921 death of showgirl Virginia Rappe at a wild party in San Francisco. The late Fatty Arbuckle, a top comedian, was tried for the crime and acquitted.

The 1922 William Desmond Taylor murder was—until Miss McDonald's mysterious case—Hollywood's biggest unsolved mystery. The producer-director was shot in his lavish bachelor home after bidding goodnight to the later star, Mabel Normand.

The Thelma Todd case in 1935 was equally baffling. The blonde comedienne's bruised body was found in her monoxide-filled car in the beach home garage of her cafe business partner, Roland West. Was it murder, accident, or suicide?

THE SHOOTING of director Thomas Ince in the '20s never has been solved.

1907 — FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY YEAR — 1957

FOREIGN DOLLS from the collection of Susan Thomas, daughter of the Bruce Thomases, are on display at the Desert Museum this month. Susan did much travelling when her father was a foreign correspondent, and has around 400 dolls in her collection. Shown on the left, is a camel made of camel's hide, from Port Said, being led by an Arab and his wife from Beirut, Lebanon. Others shown in the picture include a dancer from Kandy, Ceylon, a bandanaed doll from Martinique, a Singalese woman, a Dvak head hunter from Borneo, a Hindu woman tea picker, an Eskimo mother and papoose child from Alaska, an Emperor penguin from Antarctica, Japanese child doll, Hungarian, Italian, Spanish and Sardinian dolls. P-T Group Meeting Tonight

A panel discussion on mutual problems of parents and teachers will feature the meeting of the Katherine Finchy Parent-Teacher Group to be held in the school cafeteria tonight at 8 o'clock. Following a brief business session which will be conducted by Mrs. Betty Mitchell, president, the program will present a panel which will include: Dr. Wallace Mueller, superintendent of schools; Mrs. Mary Mitchell, director of curriculum; Lois Nowlin, guidance coordinator; Miss Eunice Crooke, primary teacher; Mrs. Sallie Nichols, parent; Chester Sproule, principal; Mrs. Shelby Wegner, program chairman, will act as moderator.

Discussion topics will be: What the Guidance program does throughout the school years; What is done in the special field, such as Art and Music; Grouping of children, promotions, homework; transgression to Junior High from Elementary School; What do parents expect from the school.

Afterwards there will be an opportunity for questions and answers. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

The Writers Affiliate With Art Center

The Writers, an active group of creative writers of Palm Springs were accepted by the board of directors of the Desert Art Center as the Writers Guild at a meeting January 7.

This affiliation is expected to be mutually beneficial to the Desert Art Center and to the Writers. The regular meeting place will be the Old Adobe House on the Village Green and all members of the Writers Guild will automatically become members of the Desert Art Center with a raise of dues to $5.

The Writers Guild will meet the first and third Wednesday of every month. The next meeting will be tonight at 7:45.

The speaker at this meeting will be Otis Burton Cannon, who recently became a Villager. Cannon is an eminent literary critic and has his own organization of writers. He is a far traveled and experienced writer with various newspapers and magazines. He, with his family now reside in Palm Springs. His talk Wednesday night will deal principally with novel writing and a most interesting question and answer period is anticipated.

Guests in the Village and aspiring writers are invited to attend this meeting.

Card Parties At Shadow Mt.

Bridge and Canasta and Shanghai continue their popular appeal at Shadow Mountain Club Wednesday afternoon and Thursday evenings.

Each Wednesday at 12:30 approximately fifty club ladies and friends gather for an afternoon luncheon and cards.

On alternate Thursday evenings the ladies invite their husbands to dinner and an evening of progressive-party bridge.

Pasadenans Re-Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smythe from Pasadena who were married 24 years ago and spent their honeymoon at the Village Inn, where Bullocks is now located are visiting in the Village for a few days.

Sunday evening, with their son Martin who was down for the day, they were the honored guests at a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stutz at their home on Avenida Ortega.

Smythe is a buyer for Bullocks Pasadena.

Farrells Entertain LaJollans

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrell entertained a group of LaJolla friends at dinner at the Racquet Club Saturday night.

In the party were the William Reeds, William Bonds, Harold Mosher and Sherman Hulls.

The W. B. Malouf hosted a party for 16 on Saturday night, including their houseguests the Wendell Hunts and Arthur Berghs. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Horowitz, the Randolph Christies, Mrs. Paul William Lawrence, Mrs. Bertine Treat and Jack Wheeler.

Rhonda Fleming and Lew Morill were dining with the John Dunbars and Don Castles. Eva Gabor and her mother Jolie, were with Bill Orr and Don Taylor.

With the William Doughertys were Dr. and Mrs. George Lancaster of Pasadena.

Senator Garrett Van Antwerp of Alabama was dining with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopps.

Visit Son

Visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law Dr. and Mrs. Salk of 885 East Sunny Dunes Road, are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Salk of New York. They plan to spend several weeks here.

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cannon and daughter Leslie Anne, of Hollywood, who have a new home here on Calle San Antonio, were celebrating Mr. Cannon's birthday Friday night at the Ranch Club.

Coronation Nights Again Mark Mondays

Coronation Nights at Shadow Mountain Club have certainly retained their charm and popularity throughout the years. This past Monday's Twelfth Nite Coronation Night started the 1957 series with a wonderful flavor. The lucky Queen was Mrs. John Vale of Rancho Mirage, whose husband was selected as Prince for the evening. The honor of being His Majesty was bestowed upon Coulter Jones. His princess was Mrs. Dr. Kenneth Hayes of Indio.

Kai Farrell, of Palm Desert who's appearing in the Holiday On Ice Show, performed with perfection with his war clubs and balancing feats. Also on the entertainment bill was Johnny Nelson a TV and Radio singer, who literally lullabys his audience with his effortless, smooth style of singing.

Last night's Coronation Night honored Irene Mathias, former social director of the Shadow Mountain Club for many of the past years.

James Kerr, wonderful new singing personality in Palm Springs, presented a program of songs for this program. The young singer has had an active singing career while in the military service and has currently been pleasing local audiences with spontaneous selections.

From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Slack from Portland, Oregon have taken a house on Stevens Road for the season.

Surprise Bill Ellis On Birthday

A pleasant birthday surprise was the buffet supper arranged by Dorothy Ellis Saturday evening in celebration of the natal day of her husband Bill.

Guests gathering at the Ellis home at 1085 Driftwood, brought gag gifts that added to the merriment of the evening.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Norman Haber, Messrs. and Mrs. Al Simone, Thurman Arnold, Bill Bronstein, Don Miller, Bob Blashek, Ted Land, Mel Wasserman, Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Huffman, Miss Arlene Cox and George Beebe Jr.

Here for Winter

Spending the winter months at the Sunshine Court is Mrs. J. S. Wood from Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. Mrs. Wood's son, John Scott Wood, his wife and son Brian, also from Vancouver, were recent visitors here. Scott is a building contractor and real estate broker in Vancouver.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Mink, orchids and diamonds . . . marked the opening of Palm Springs Playhouse for its eighth season . . . as beautifully-gowned women and their black tie escorts walked up the red carpet . . . and were greeted by a receiving line of Playhouse Guild officials . . . headed by Guild president Mrs. John F. Luccareni . . . Don Pedro and his musicians played in the Playhouse foyer . . . The circle of seats around the center stage . . . was a brilliant scene . . . representative of Palm Springs society . . . and a sprinkling of celebrities was in the audience . . . including that great star Marjorie Rambeau . . . the Walt Disneys . . . and Victor Jory, star of next week's play . . . who emceed the after show.

First nighters sipped and supped . . . at numerous pre-theatre parties . . . before converging on the Playhouse . . . for the gala preview performance of "Roomful of Roses" . . . The red carpet was out to lend an authentic opening night feeling . . . as the orchid-mink-and-diamond set arrived . . . In the foyer everyone was greeting everyone else . . . there was music and the flash of photographers bulbs . . . and playgoers received the programs . . . with the smart new cover design by Earl Cordrev . . .

The center stage was unusually attractive . . . with modern furniture . . . emphasizing a deep blue, from Elrod . . . and masses of beautiful flowers . . . that added to the gala atmosphere . . . The audience accorded a warm greeting as old favorites like Marjorie Rambeau, Phyllis Flax, Michael Ferrall and Tim O'Connor made their entrances . . . and were delighted by the performances of three juveniles, Maureen Cassidy, Steffi Sidney and Jay Sayer . . .

The play "Roomful of Roses" is undoubtedly the best opening night production offered by Producer Herb Rogers . . . and his eighth winters in Palm Springs . . . A comedy drama . . . light enough and gay enough . . . it has amusing dialogue . . . and skillful touches of deeper feeling . . . The cast, headed by Marjorie Rambeau (I don't know how she does it . . . but she keeps getting better all the time) . . . as the mother reunited with her 15-year-old daughter after eight years separation . . . plays the role Ginger Rogers did in the film version "Teen Age Rebel" . . . Attractive young Maureen Cassidy lives the role of the daughter and has at least two scenes in which she is guaranteed to bring tears to the eyes of any parent . . .

Adding lustre to the evening . . . was the late supper dance at El Mirador . . . Sprays of red carnations, tied with white ribbons and gauze were arranged in tall silver epergnes on the tables . . . lending new distinction and beauty to El Mirador Room . . . Once more the Playhouse Guild has offered . . . a brilliant season opener . . . that is looked forward to each year . . .

(Listen to Hildy Crawford, Monday through Friday, at 11:30 a.m., on KDES, 920 on your dial).

Visits Here First Time In 35 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes (he's a San Francisco Examiner executive) and Mrs. Hazel Connors were here over the weekend, primarily to participate in the bridge tournament at Wonder Palms, where they were guests. While here they were entertained at the Racquet Club and Thunderbird Country Club and enjoyed Liberate at the Chi Chi.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes have been in the apartment house business in San Francisco for many years and this is Mrs. Holmes' first trip to Palm Springs since 1922. At that time she was enroute to Texas where she ran out of gas and needed car repairs and stopped at a station on Palm Canyon Drive where she had her car serviced by Zaddie Bunker.

On this visit Mrs. Holmes renewed her acquaintance with Mrs. Bunker and they had much fun together. All those years ago Zaddie had urged the tourist to invest (with their large fortune of $700) in Palm Springs real estate and now could point out what that $700 would have amounted to today . . . 35 years later.

MR. AND MRS. RHYS MAY from Mammoth Lakes, are visiting the Basil ferrebees at 548 Mountain View Drive, before going on to Florida for an indefinite stay.

Full Program For Children

Children at Shadow Mountain Club are beginning their new year's activities with a real vim and vigor. The tumbling youths between the ages of 4-7 have organized and are calling themselves the Tumbling Clowns. This group meets every Thursday at 2:30 p.m. for instruction in tumbling stunts and mimetics. Their older brothers and sisters meet on the same day at 4:30 for tumbling and judo instruction. Very soon Shadow Mountain Club audiences will be viewing these children's accomplishments in some of the oncoming Sports Shows at the Club.

Roller skating hit the activity list for Shadow Mountain Club Juniors last week, when the Cactus Cats (ages 11-13) took themselves on a party to the Palm Springs Roller Rink.

By LINDSAY NEILSON
Last night five local cagers went on to the basketball courts at Beaumont with the solitary thought of winning their first league game. At the final buzzer, that game group leaped and howled at the fact that they had upset the number one team in the RCL.

Al Kazmier's Palm Springs Indians defeated the Cougars of Beaumont in a point-for-point match that didn't break until the last quarter of what could be termed as an extremely close hard-fought tilt.

THE LOCAL BEE SQUAD was not as successful as their bigger relatives. The Bees lost in the final quarter, for they were within striking distance midway in the third canto when the contest was a 35-37 game.

Then Kazmier's little men were completely overwhelmed by a superior fast-driving Cougar kitten five. The Palm Springs Bees were fighting until the end yet they finished underneath a 67-39 tally. Dick MacFarland and Mike Warner were high-point men with 12 numerals apiece. Jim Capps can claim game-high honors for Beaumont and the entire contest with a grand total of 20 points.

SAM JONES and Curtis Roberts were the big sparks for the Warriors in both offense and defense and most of all plain ball hawkings. Jones lead the local barrage with 15 tallies he was followed by a new Indian recruit for the squad, Bob Jackson, who played his second game for the locals and did a terrific job both scoring and rebounding. He scored 10 points. Rolland Skelton and his fellow Cougar teammate, John Sommercamp were big guns for the Beaumont men as predicted. Skelton accounted for 11 and Sommercamp for 14.

Friday night, the Indians face Hemet on the local high school hardwood. Game time will be at 7 p.m.

Matheny Seeks Miami U. Ruling

LOS ANGELES — Jim Matheny, All-Coast center at UCLA whose football career in the Pacific Coast Conference ended with his junior year under a conference ban, has written the University of Miami, Fla., to determine if he might have a year of eligibility there.

Matheny is one of more than a half-dozen UCLA players who lost a season's eligibility under a PCC penalty for receiving "under the table" financial aid. Matheny was a junior last season and under the ruling, has completed his eligibility in the conference.

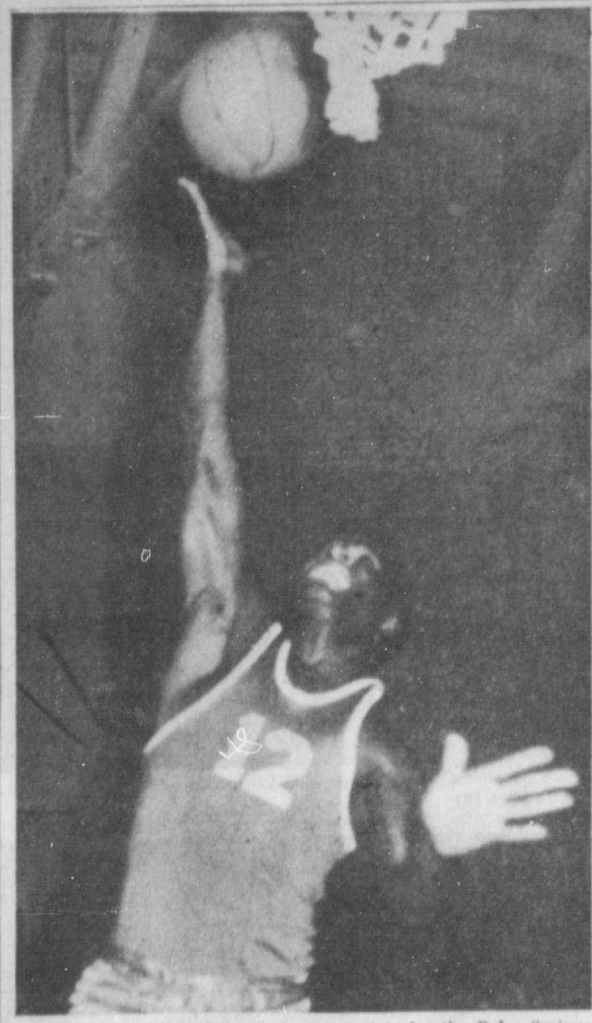

Fans Form Group to Aid Louis on Taxes

CHICAGO — Contributions to help pay Joe Louis' tax debt of $1,19,030 to the federal government will be accepted by a newly-formed corporation, it was announced today.

Officials of the corporation and Louis' attorney, John Payne, said they believed the debt possibly could be settled at about 25 or 30 cents on the dollar owed.

Summer Tan Feeling His Oats in Florida

HIALEAH, Fla. — Summer Tan, who is in training for the Hialeah park meeting, apparently can't wait for his next race. Mrs. John W. Galbreath's stakes-winning thoroughbred broke loose twice Tuesday and galloped through the Hialeah stable area. He had a slight leg cut when he finally was cornered in a barn.

Seniors Dent Par in Initial Round of Play

Low Scores Carded at O'Donnell Club; At Tamarisk Today

James Tuna and Clive Roberts of Thunderbird carded a host ball total of 55 in the first round of the Palm Springs Desert Seniors Golf association January tournament yesterday at O'Donnell Golf Club to lead the field after the first 19 holes of the 54-hole tournament.

They also figured in Tuesday's daily best ball foursome play when, teamed with Harry Hilp of San Rafael's Meadow Country Club and George Braley of Waverly Country Club, Portland, they racked up a best ball score of 51, 19 strokes below par.

MORE THAN 100 Senior amateurs took part in the first day's play at O'Donnell and today were at Tamarisk for the second day. The third round will be played tomorrow at Thunderbird Golf and Country Club.

Reg Seabrook of San Diego Country Club and Eric Stanton of Thunderbird, were tied with H. R. Hamilton of Los Angeles and Braven Dyer, Los Angeles Times sports writer, of Lakeside Country Club for second spot with 57s.

TODAY'S PLAY at Tamarisk includes hole-in-one contests at the 2nd and 12th hole and other special prizes.

Yesterday's leaders:
Best Ball Foursome:
55—James Tuna, Clive Roberts, 57—Reg Seabrook, Eric Stanton, H. R. Hamilton, Braven Dyer.
56—Anthony Patterson, Torrance Cudney, Walden Hamilton.
Daily Best Ball Foursome:
51—Hilp, Braley, Tuna, Roberts, 52—Jolley, Lindstrom, Seabrook, Skelton, Dean, Lawell, Weller, Nixon, 54—D. P. Shearer, Ray Thornton, Horstein, Dent, Bender Anthony, Peter, men.

Aragon Sure of Exoneration at Fight Fix Trial

LOS ANGELES — Welterweight boxer Art Golden Boy Aragon, indicted by the Los Angeles County grand jury on charges of conspiring to "fix" a fight, said today his trial would give him a chance to be "publicly exonerated."

Aragon, charged with conspiring to "fix" about in Son Antonio, Tex., last Dec. 18, surrendered himself an hour after his indictment Tuesday and was released on $1,000 bail. He was termed the charges as "ridiculous."

The indictment was returned here because the alleged conspiracy in which Aragon's opponent, Dick Goldstein, charged he was to get $500 to "take a dive" originated in Los Angeles.

Dodgers Without Park in Brooklyn

BROOKLYN — The Dodgers don't own a home in Brooklyn any more.
This came about officially Tuesday afternoon when the ball club formally sold title to Ebbets Field to Marvin Krater and his associates. Immediately, the Dodgers rented the park for the next three years.

Dodger officials said they have by the time the lease expires they will be able to move into a new home in Flatbush, the much-discussed Brooklyn Sports Center.

Ted Williams Not Thinking of Quitting

LOS ANGELES — Ted Williams had no thoughts of retiring from baseball and is looking forward to a big season with the Boston Red Sox in 1957, according to his personal manager, Fred Corcoran.

Corcoran would neither confirm nor deny Tuesday that Williams probably would sign with the Red Sox for $100,000, but his failure to deny the figure gave it credence.

Name Milt Campbell Outstanding Athlete

PHILADELPHIA — Milt Campbell of Plainfield, N. J., who set an Olympic game record in the decathlon at Melbourne, Australia, has been named the outstanding American athlete of 1956 by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Assn. The 23-year-old Campbell, currently in the U.S. Navy, will accept the award at the writers' 53rd annual banquet, Jan. 28.

McAtee Goes Home

NEW YORK — British Empire middleweight champion Pat McAtee, knocked out by Spider Webb in Chicago on Dec. 19, left for his home in Birkenhead, England Tuesday to complete training for a European middleweight championship bout with Charles Humez of France in Paris, Feb. 4.

USGA Reverses Ruling on Wrong Score Postings

NEW YORK — The U. S. Golf Assn., today reversed the ruling it made in two championships last year and restored its old penalty of automatic disqualification for a player posting a wrong score.

Jackie Burke of Kiamiesha Lake, N. Y., Gil Cavanaugh of Cedarhurst, N. Y., and Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C., were permitted to remain in USGA tournaments in 1956 after they had accidentally posted incorrect scores for a hole.

In its new ruling, the USGA said "The penalty of disqualification may be waived or modified only under the most extraordinary circumstances. Rule 33-2 makes the competitor solely responsible for the correctness of the score recorded for each hole. It is a simple matter to discharge this responsibility and the penalty, although severe, can easily be avoided."

PROS HAVE BIG PLANS FOR CROSBY'S TOURNEY

By HAL WOOD

United Press Sports Writer
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The Professional Golfers' Association announces big plans for boosting the purse and changing the dates for the annual Bing Crosby charity clambake—but if you ask Larry Crosby about the program, he just shakes his head.

J. Edwin Carter, tournament bureau manager for the PGA, says he has a sponsor who will add an additional $5,000 in money for the pro division to add to the $15,000 that Der Bingle puts up. And Carter would like to change the dates to October or November, when the weather would be better.

Charity Benefited
"I don't know anything about it," says Larry Crosby, Bing's manager. "But as far as I'm concerned, we'll keep the tournament as it is right now."
"After all, charity netted about $30,000 from the event this year, plus $10,000 from advertisements in the program. How can anyone complain about that?"

Besides, he pointed out, "there are other people in Monterey who are good for hotels and motels in the Monterey area during October and November—and that the Crosby clambake during January helped take up the slack.

Some of the touring professionals have indicated year after year that they won't return to Pebble Beach in January—because of the weather.

Good Test of Golf
For several years now there have been winds of gale velocity, accompanied by lashing rains that almost sweep the golfers off the course.

"That's just another good test of golf," says Peter Hay, the old Scotchman who is professional at Pebble Beach.

Some of the "follow the sun" boys don't care much for play in that type of weather—but most of them, out of friendship for Bing, come and play, anyway. Seven men this year, led by Doug Ford, defected to play in the Panama City Open. But the field still was strong.

"We're happy with the tournament the way it is right now," Larry says. "We get good crowds, Bing likes to have it in January and the charities all seem to like the money they get. What more can I say?"

N. Carolina Nears Peak in U.S. Rankings

Defeats Arch Rival N.C. State to Bid for National Lead

(By UNITED PRESS)
They have the record 15-0 they have revenge over their arch-rival, and now North Carolina's torrid Tar Heels need only the votes to become the nation's No. 1 college basketball team.

North Carolina, the only unbeaten major college team in the nation now that Kansas has been whipped, bid to supplant Kansas at the top of the rating heap Tuesday night with a rough-and-tumble, 83-57 victory over once mighty North Carolina State on State's own court in Raleigh, N.C.

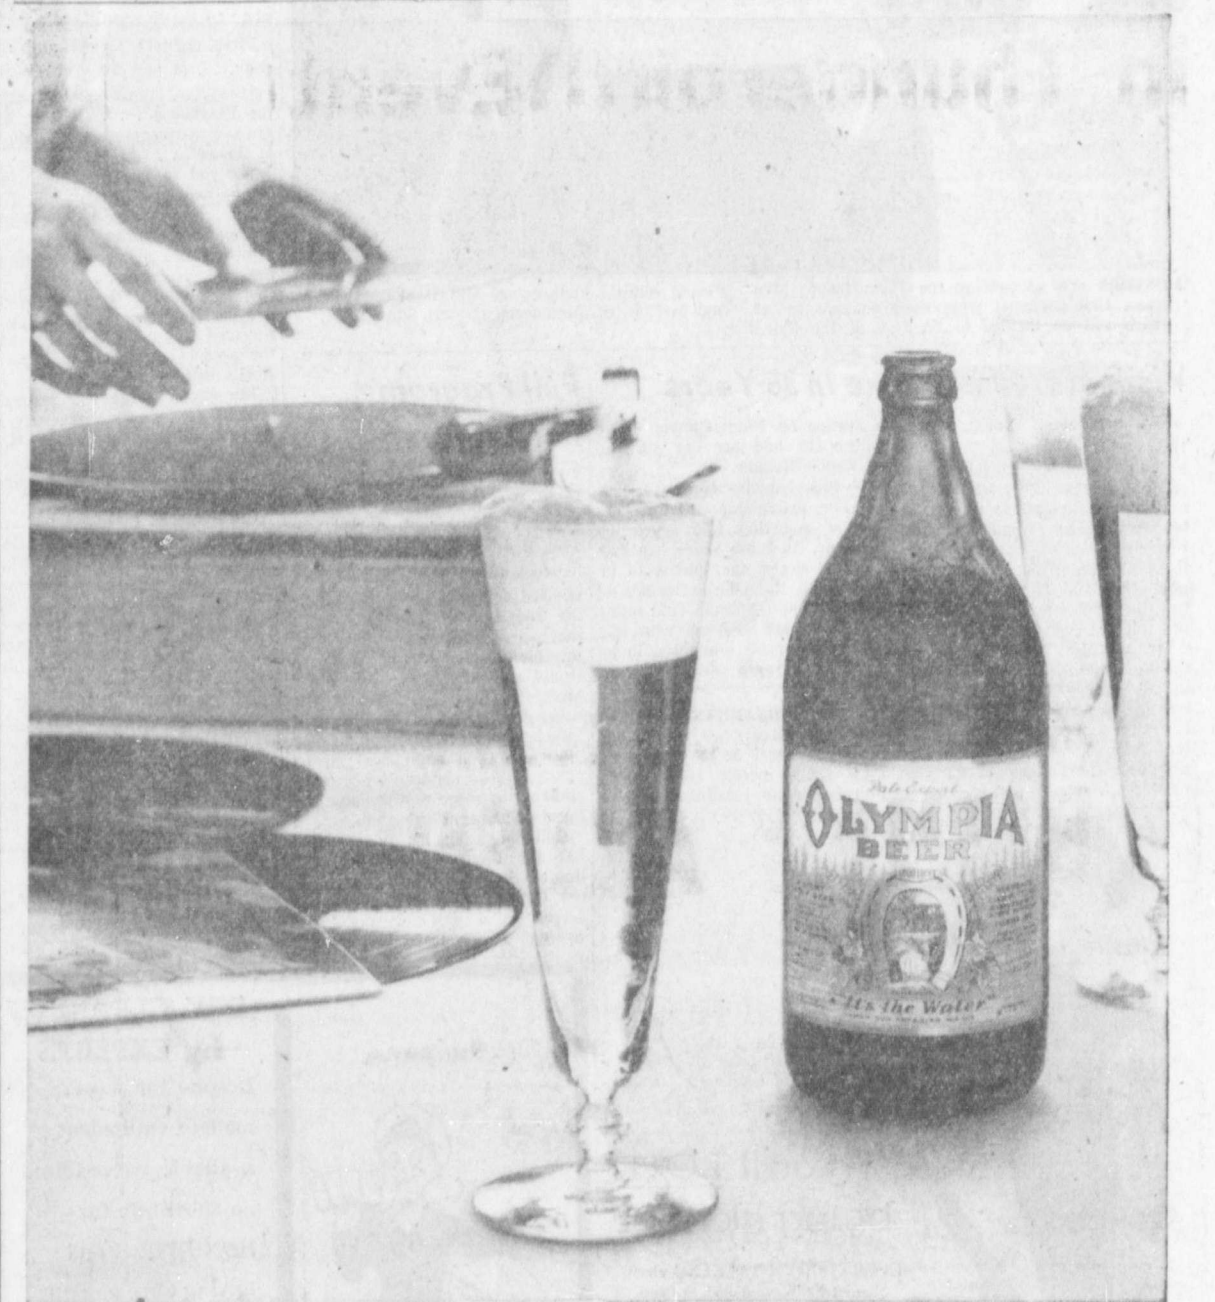

It was only the fourth win in 13 games for Tar Heel Coach Frank McGuire in a red-hot rivalry with State Coach Everett Case, but it could have been North Carolina's biggest move toward an unbeaten season.

North Carolina, now ranked No. 2 nationally, and Kansas, which was upset, 39-37, by Iowa State Monday, now are idle for two weeks for exams. But they'll be watching for the new cage rankings early next week.

Southern Methodist, the nation's No. 4 team, barely skinned to a 59-57 victory over Rice to remain atop the Southwest Conference.

Hollywood to Train At Anaheim Again

HOLLYWOOD — The Hollywood Stars basketball team will conduct spring training at Anaheim again this year, according to club president Robert H. Cobb. Cobb said that the team was returning to Anaheim for its sixth straight season because it was extremely satisfied with the facilities there and the cooperation the team had received.

Leading Money Pros in Thunderbird Event

Leading money winners during the 1956 pro golf campaign plus top amateurs and club members will cover the Thunderbird Golf and Country Club course from Thursday, January 24 through Sunday, January 27.

The occasion will be the Sixth Annual $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational Pro-Member Tournament.

The pros will play a 72-hole route in their quest for the prize money.

MEMBERS, teamed with the pros, will play 36 holes on a best ball foursome basis.

Thursday and Friday, each pro, teamed with three amateurs, will play 18 holes each. The best ball foursome play will be concluded on the evening of the second day.

Saturday and Sunday, January 26 and 27, the pros will go it alone, covering 18 holes each day for a 72-hole total for the four days.

PRACTICE ROUNDS will be staged on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 22 and 23.

Most of the pros are expected to be on the course for the practice rounds those two days.

Among the top pros invited to participate are Jay Hebert, winner of last week's Bing Crosby Tournament at Pebble Beach, with a card of 213, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, 1956 U. S. Open champion and runner-up at Pebble Beach with 215, Jack Burke Jr., 1956 Masters and PGA winner, who carded a 229 at Pebble Beach, Mike Fitch, Gene Littler, Ed Furgol and practically all of the leaders in the Crosby tourney and the recent L. A. Open.

THE TOURNAMENT is sponsored ed by members of Thunderbird. Reuben Fleet is general chairman of the Tournament Committee, aided by Milt Hicks, Herman Listman, Ralph Singer, Jimmy Hinds, club pro, Joe Dwyer, B. F. Shearer, Ross Clark, Chauncey Needham, G. E. Karken is president of Thunderbird.

Club members will be allowed to use their regular handicaps in the two days of the Pro-Amateur best ball foursome play.

Saddler Ousted From Ring Title

MILWAUKEE — Feather weight champion Sandy Saddler was dethroned today in a bloodless coup headed by Fred Saddy, chairman of the National Boxing Association's Rating Committee. The NBA officials had warned the wiry Bostonian Jan. 9, to sign for a title bout by midnight Jan. 15 or be dropped from the NBA's rating as featherweight champion of the world.

Mobile Homes

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

The Mobile Home Parks in the Palm Springs area have their calendars brimming over with activities for January.

Entertainment includes about everything from dancing, card parties and dinners to the classes in various hobbies, which are being widely attended by the residents in many of the Parks.

Among the very interesting classes held in some of the Parks are: Leather Tooling, Oil, Water Color and Landscape Painting, Lapidary, Pine Needle Work and Copper Enamel, all creating something in their chosen hobby.

De Luxe Park

The 1957 season at De Luxe looks as if it will be a very busy and interesting one. Aside from their regular weekly program of entertainment, many new classes have been organized and are being well attended.

Gaylord Richmond is teaching oil and water color painting, also Jewelry making and ceramics.

Dora Tennyson has a very interesting class in Non-Fiction Writing.

Leathercraft is being taught by Gertrude Melius.

WEEKLY CARAVAN trips are planned to various points of interest in the desert area.

Next weekend, Jan. 19 and 20, a group from De Luxe plans to join another rockhound group going to Twin Buttes near Blythe, looking for agate and other stones that can be cut and polished.

De Luxe has very fine lapidary equipment, and following the trip they will return to De Luxe Craftshop to cut and polish the stones they find.

Other trips will include the fish traps and travertine point near the Salton Sea, the Joshua Tree National Monument, Trinkle Canyon near Mecca and others.

IN HONOR of the members of the Spanish Class, a Spanish potluck dinner will be held Tuesday, Jan. 22, and on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Only Spanish may be spoken during the meal.

Eighteen parks of the desert area were represented at the monthly meeting of the Trailer Park Association, Thursday night at De Luxe, with 35 managers and associates attending. A final report on the 1956 Palm Springs Area Trailer Rally was given and plans begun for the 1957 Rally.

De Luxe is happy to have Frank Cromwell back on the active list of the Park staff. Recovered from a previous illness, Frank is now assisting the manager in the supervision of Park maintenance. His years of experience at De Luxe, and knowledge of the physical plan are greatly appreciated at this time.

DE LUXE HAS been the means of bringing the trails of two shipmates together again, after a period of 49 years. Roy Clark again met Ernest Stearns for the first time since 1907. At that time they were shipmates on the USS Washington, sharing a trip around the Horn on another adventure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Dorland of Hollywood, were recent dinner guests of Comdr. and Mrs. M. G. Tennyson. The Dorlands have just returned from a tour of Japan, Hong Kong and the Islands, where they visited their daughter and family.

The Dorlands are veteran trail-ers, coming to Palm Springs with their first trailer in 1936. Thirteen years later they returned and were residents of De Luxe. Mrs. Dorland says she enjoys her apartment in Hollywood, but she is ready any day "at the drop of the hat" to move back into the trailer.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Marshall Sayers, world famous artist in wood carving, were recent guests of Ed and Bea Fautz.

Mr. Sayers is also the author of "The Book of Woodcarving," an illustrated text book for beginners, and conducts a school at Walnut Creek on wood carving. He is also well known for his oil and water color paintings, with several of his paintings in the Palm Springs Art Center, where his smashing marine paintings have created much favorable comment.

Hoppy Hopkins, who is a popular caller in the desert area, will be guest caller at De Luxe Friday night dance. Those living outside the Park have a special invitation to attend this dance, which is Jan. 18 at 8 p. m.

Residents of De Luxe have indicated a great amount of interest in the First Aid Class, and as a result, a class in First Aid will be held Tuesday, Jan. 22 at 1:30 p. m.

Ramon Park

By LYLIA PLUMB

Friday night saw the first big party of the year with Rose Dykes as usual at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Bessie had an anniversary and happy birthdays were sung to Marvel Holman, Hilda Trinkle, Irene Werner and Dorothy Dudley.

Cakes were donated by Clara Ford, Ione Huffman, Dell Tressler, Marie Lawrence and Ethel Coolidge. Earl Huffman on the co-ordinating committee welcomed guests. The evening was concluded with singing by Rose Dykes, Walter Chesterman, Mr. Williamson and John Dykes.

AMONG THE MANY guests were Elfrida Edmiston, Bill and Jess Lane, Mac and Sadie McKesson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boshard, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Hime and Ada Journey, Marie Kennedy and her mother, Margaret Johnson, and their guest, Minnie Stephens, from Berkeley, Rilla Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hays.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Nate Lavagette, Dottie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hull, Hank and Caroline Priestler, Mr. and Mrs. Yancie Bressie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwab from Berkeley, C. and Hallie Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Chesterman and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lavers. Mr. Lavers is an attorney in Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kuharic are entertaining Mrs. K.'s sister Florence Johnson from Oregon.

WE ARE BOASTING the residence in Ramon of Miss Palm Springs, Barbara Duer who lives here with her mother and father and brother. She is interested in making ice skating her profession. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson entertained Mrs. Peterson's niece from Abilene, Texas, for a few days. Casa-de Contenta is the name for the Trailrama belonging to George and Marie Bremmer. They are entertaining many friends.

MRS. HELEN JONES is visiting her daughter in San Francisco.

Nicky Hewlett, visiting his many friends in the park, said he hates to return to Los Angeles but will be back to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hull have returned to Ramon. They spent last winter in their new home in Paradise.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner have as their guest Mr. Gardiner's sister-in-law, Mrs. Gardiner, from Arizona. Mrs. Gardiner expects to remain about two months.

Edna Freeman has returned from Modesto and hopes to be here the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Priester, of Vancouver, B. C. will occupy the Selinger's trailer for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hargitt are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Hargitt's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Krupp.

Mrs. Helen Schork is visiting her parents in Long Beach.

There was a large crowd at the Saturday night dance, many coming from other Parks. Refreshments were served.

Beckley's Park

(By — BEEBE)

In a four trailer caravan to Mexico City, the Asa Strains, A. C. Ellingtons and the Chester and Cromwell Olivers, all from Kent, Wash., pulled their trailers out of Beckley's Saturday. The group expects to be gone about six weeks before returning for the balance of the season.

New converts to trailering are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hagard from Santa Cruz. They have both declared they are "just beginning to live."

WALT AND ANITA Hawkins are sojourning to Tucson for ten days where they will attend the Annual Square Dance Festival. From there they will go to Phoenix for more dancing at some square dance clubs with friends.

New arrivals at Beckley's include: John and Mary Palmer of Los Angeles. John is one of the many firemen who fought long and hard on the Malibu fire, and is enjoying his well earned respite. Also Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schultz of Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO — An Army order requiring national guardsmen to serve six months active duty would "seriously cripple" the California National Guard, according to Maj. Gen. Earle M. Jones, California adjutant general. Recruiting is difficult enough now, Jones said. "When we have to tell young men they will have to spend six months on active duty, it's going to be even more difficult."

Jones urged that the Pentagon reconsider its order in view of the fact the Army failed to attract more than 50,000 volunteers for its six months program for 18 and 19-year-olds.

County Off-Street Parking Law Adopted by 3 to 2 Vote

By a vote of three to two the county board of supervisors adopted the proposed off-street parking ordinance this week requiring off-street parking provisions in all unincorporated areas of the county whenever there is new building or in many cases building renovations.

Supervisor William Jones and Supervisor Fred McCall voted against the ordinance because it contains a requirement that single residences must provide a parking space for at least one car. The two supervisors have objected to making a man who doesn't own a car provide space for one. The other three supervisors maintain that a man who builds a house now isn't going to own it forever and that some auto owner is eventually going to acquire the property and want a place to put his car. "He couldn't even come home if he had no place to park," said Supervisor Berkeley. "He'd have to take a taxi."

"Pretty soon we're going to have to depend on other transportation anyway," opined Supervisor McCall. "That's true in all areas when they get crowded. The people have to use buses, street cars or other transportation."

"Maybe you should require all homes to have flat roofs so people can use helicopters for transportation," suggested Dale Kiler of Riverside on hand as an observer.
